

The media is already controlled enough by major corporations and I believe it is not in the best interest of the public for more media consolidation. The public needs its uncontrolled media to maintain diversity and freedom to express wherein a larger audience can be reached. Please retain the current ownership rules of the FCC.